

TRUMANSBURG ROTARY MEETING MINUTES FOR March 18th, 2021

- ☞ President Peggy started the meeting by letting everyone know that there is a wealth of information on Rotary.org.
- ☞ Angel Stillions was introduced as our newest member. WELCOME ANGEL!!!!
- ☞ Frank reported that the Duck Race is a go for May 22nd starting at 1pm. We were fortunate enough to have the Greene Lions Club loan us their ducks and even volunteered to come help us. The selling price for the ducks will be 5 for $20 or $5 each. The tickets will be printed up soon. We are going to start this year with 500 ducks.
- ☞ The Stay Wild Rescue information for their grant, so we can close it out, is coming soon.
- ☞ Student of the Month is coming along.
- ☞ Mary Bouchard got the permits for the BBQ season.
- ☞ Golf Tournament is being set for Friday July 9th.
- ☞ Mary G-S will do stickers for the clam shells.
- ☞ It was suggested to look at the e-mail that Tom sent on the tour of Rotary International. It is an interesting video.
- ☞ We discussed the deadline for our grants, and it will be May 31st.
- ☞ Peggy read part of the speech our incoming RI President Shekhar Mehta gave on Rotary Peace Issues. She liked the idea of Rotary being "Peace Warriors".
- ☞ In our ongoing segment of Getting to Know Our Members, Kathleen gave us the information on President Peggy.
- ☞ Peggy grew up in Brooklyn and she had many interesting jobs, a couple of which are...modeling in NYC, a chanteuse (a female singer of popular songs, especially in a nightclub) on the Delta Queen and dabbled as an auctioneer. She met her husband, Peter Hoover, in 1993. She studied and worked at Cornell and upon retiring from there she started selling real estate and was voted Best and Worst dressed by the Ithaca Times. Peggy finally retired for good in 2015. Now that she is retired Peggy does a lot of online learning and volunteering. Peggy has been a Rotarian since 1989 and really enjoys and is proud of what Rotary does and is our current President. She also has two granddaughters and loves spending time with them.
- ☞ The meeting ended at 8:04.
